LACHINE, on Line Grand Trunk Railway 8 miles from Montreal, 23 minutes ride by rail,

The town of Lachine is in the county of Jacques Cartier and fronts on lake St. Louis to the westward and the River St. Lawrence to the south. Its population is between 2,000 and 3,000, many of them doing business in Montreal, with which there are excellent Railway accommodations, Lachine commands a splendid view of Lake St. Louis which furnishes magnificent boating, bathing, and fishing. Its society is to be desired, and Lachine may almost be described as urbs in rure. It contains the best features of health, there being particularly present, in its best sense, that feeling of "homeliness," which is so difficult to obtain without almost more than corresponding drawbacks. Lachine contains churches of various denominations, convents, schools, stores, hotels, a brewery, tannery, etc. Here, both in winter and summer, pleasure parties from the city come almost daily. From Lachine, the steamers of the Ottawa Navigation Company start, and here they also land their passengers who travel the distance intervening between this and the city by rail and take on those desirous of shooting the rapids.

The Richelieu and Ontario Steamers also take on their passengers for the West. Just opposite Lachine is the interesting Indian village of Caughnawaga and a short distance below are the Lachine Rapids. The Lachine Canal which connects with Montreal has Lachine as its western terminus. The new C.P.R. bridge is also an object of interest, and through it passes most of the traffic to and from the West.

Fishing, in Lake St. Louis, this Lake forms the junction between the Ottawa and St. Lawrence rivers, Maskinonge black bass, dore, [pike-perch] pike, perch etc., bass, dore and perch most numerous; baits, minnows and spoons, May, June, August and September best. Hotels $2 per day, guides with boat $3 per day, boats alone $1 per day.

Trains leave Bonaventure 5.50., 6.50., 7.45., 9.00. 10.30. a.m., 12.00. noon, 2.00. 3.30., 5.00 p.m., 6.15., 7.15., 9.00 p.m. Returning from Lachine 6.15., 7.15., 8.20., 10.55. a.m., 12.37, 2.25, 4.00, 5.30, 6.42, 7.40, 9.25, p.m.

DORVAL, on Grand Trunk Railway, 10 miles from Montreal; half hour ride by rail

Dorval is a small village about three miles above Lachine, and is admirably situated almost along the side of the River St Lawrence, or rather of Lake St Louis. It contains several very fine houses, which are occupied by Montreal people. The Grand Trunk Railway depot is within reasonable distance, and the facilities for communication are of a satisfactory character. Dorval is opposite an island of the same name, and in front of the shore runs the well known Lachine Boating Course. There is good fishing.

Trains leave Bonaventure 1.30, 5.00, and 6.20 p.m.

Saturday Afternoon Special 2 p.m., fares, 40cts. return.

VALOIS, on line Grand Trunk Railway, 12½ miles from Montreal, 35 minutes ride by rail.

Valoisville is one of the most conveniently and pleasantly situated villages on the Island of Montreal. The houses face the river, many of them being so close that it is possible to throw a stone into it from their windows, the only space intervening between them being the highway from Montreal. The railway track is also close by, running parallel with the river, and the station is only a few hundred yards from the most distant house. The boating is excellent and during the season the river is frequented by considerable flocks of ducks, which are best approached from the other side of the river. Valois has a good boat house and boating club and the beach is favorable for bathing. The ordinary population will hardly number a hundred and no avocation is followed save farming on a small scale, and that mainly to supply the demands of visitors.

Trains leave Bonaventure 1.30, 5.00, 6.20, p.m.

Saturday Afternoon Special, 2.00 p.m. Fare 40cts. Return.
